

Culture

Town Hall of the Peace of Westphalia

Old Town Sightseeing Tour

- 1 Town Hall of the Peace of Westphalia Built in late Gothic style, with the historic "Chamber of Peace". The Municipal Treasury with the imperial goblet and historic town replica are well worth seeing.
- 2 Heger Tor The Heger Tor was built in 1817 as a memorial to the soldiers from Osnabrück who fought at Waterloo.
- 3 Felix-Nussbaum-Haus / Museum of Cultural History The museum building, which was opened in 1998 and designed by the American architect Daniel Libeskind, houses the largest collection of works by the Jewish painter Felix Nussbaum, who was born in Osnabrück and murdered in Auschwitz in 1944.

- 4 Bucksturm The Bucksturm is the oldest tower of the former town wall and was a prison and torture chamber during certain periods.
- 5 Kunsthalle Osnabrück This Gothic hall church (13th century) was a monastery church until 1803, then a barracks and since 1971 it has been the town art gallery. It is one of the most beautiful exhibition rooms in Lower Saxony.
- 6 Herrenteichswall The Herrenteichswall was an element of the fortification and protected against attacks. In May 1909 the newly arranged entrance to the Herrenteichswall with the Haarmannsbunnen was inaugurated.

CITY TIP

The CityCard is a ticket for all buses within the city, including free admission to six museums in Osnabrück plus a voucher booklet for other interesting cultural activities. www.osnabrueck.de/english

FOTO: S. C. FINKE-ENHLEN

- 1 Steigenberger Hotel Remarque
- 2 Romantikhotel Walhalla
- 3 arcona living Osnabrück
- 4 advena hotel hohenzollern
- I Tourist Information

- old town sightseeing tour
- pedestrian area
- free WiFi (Telekom)

- 7 Cathedral Treasury and Diocesan Museum Sculptures, paintings and textiles pertaining to the history of the diocese of Osnabrück from the 11th to the 18th centuries are on display in the Cathedral Vault and Museum of the Diocese in the Romanesque doister of St. Peter's Cathedral.
- 8 Marktplatz The Town Hall, Stadtwage and the St. Mary's Church on the one, the colourful bourgeois houses with their stepped gables on the other side, border the historic market place.

- 9 St. Marien Gothic Hall church (14th century) with important art objects including the intricately carved main altar (16th century). Visitors can climb to the top of the church tower.
- 10 Bürgerbrunnen Hans-Gerd Ruwe created the well, which was inaugurated in 1985. Referring to the 1200th anniversary of the city in 1980, the well consists of 1200 parts and tells the history of Osnabrück.